

Heavenly Evil Reversal

Process Book

Introduction

This is the Process Book for the school project called “Heavenly Evil Reversal. I am Jaden Cheung Chung Yeung, and I am one of the Character Designers of this project. This book will guild throung and showcase the concept art, development, and the final design of the characters from the project.

Brief Description of the Story

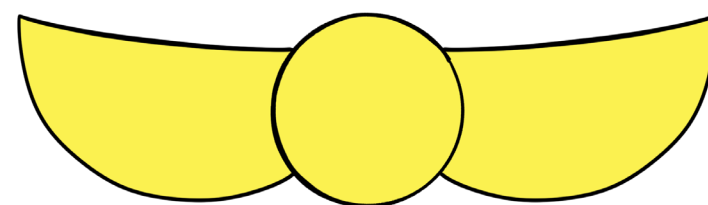

Damien was a serial killer when he was alive. When he got shot on day, he was turned into a demon and was sent to hell to bear the worst suffering he has ever had. He rally regreats what he had done and went back to the limbo to beg for a second chance, the other angels agreed except one, which is known as Adrian.

He belives that Demons like Damien cannot be forgiven!! Therefore, Adrian will always try to stop Damien from doing good deeds by attempting to foil Damien’s plans and even worse, trying for a way to banish and destory Damien forever.

Will Damien good deeds win the battle of the evil angel Adrian, and what will happen next?

The Moral of the Story

Sometimes, people make mistakes in life and the most important thing is that we are willing to forgive others because and forgiveness can set people free.

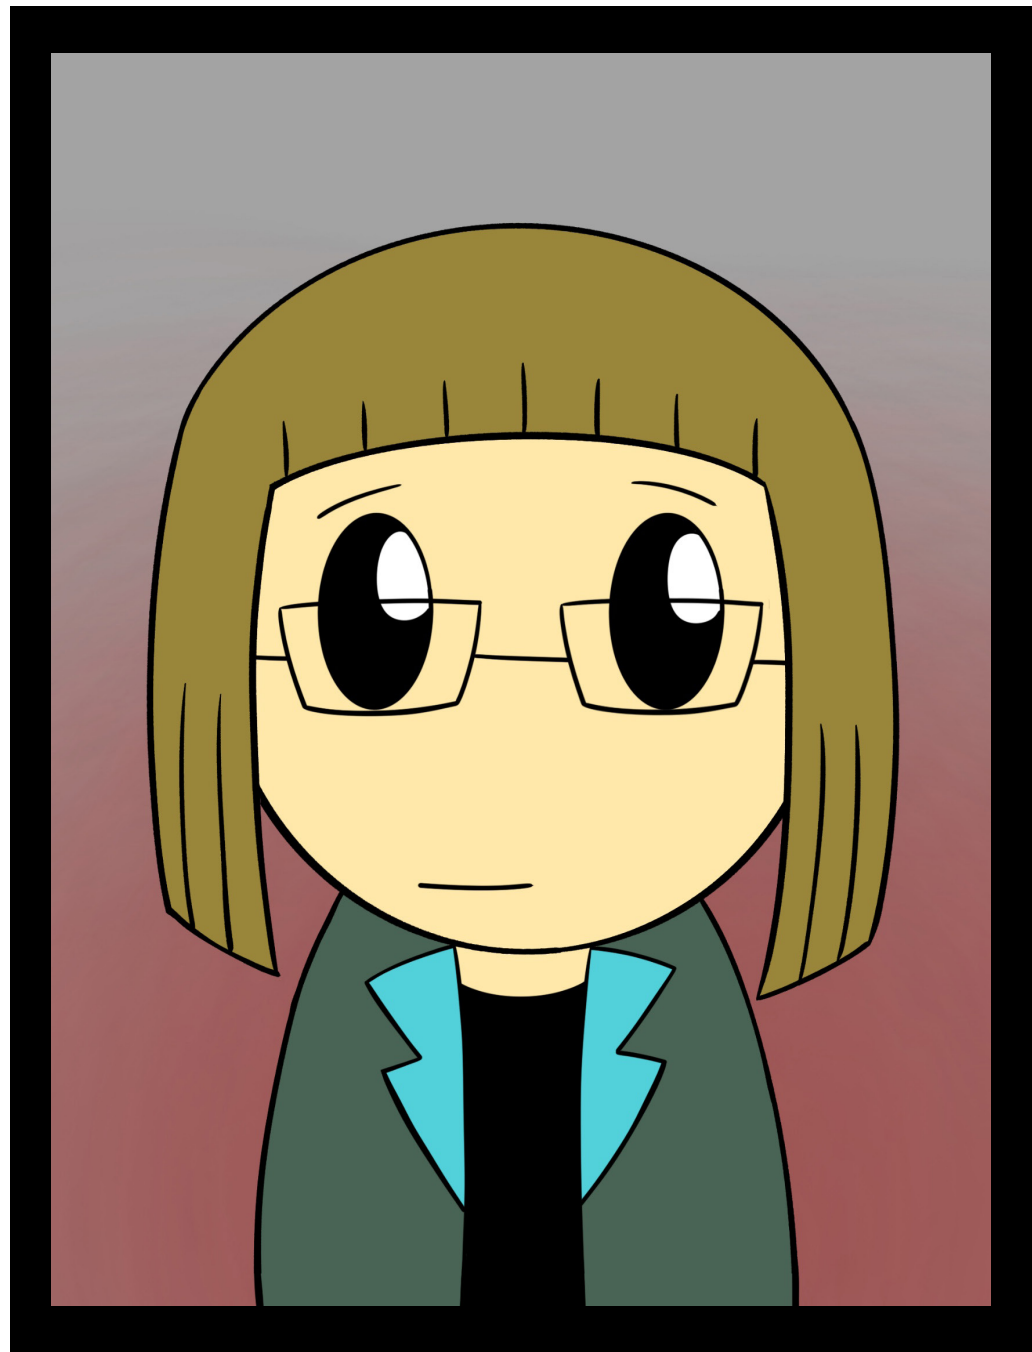

Unfortunately, some people are cold-hearted and unforgiving.

References

The concept of the animation is loosely inspired by Samurai Jack, except our cartoon style have outlined applied to the characters.

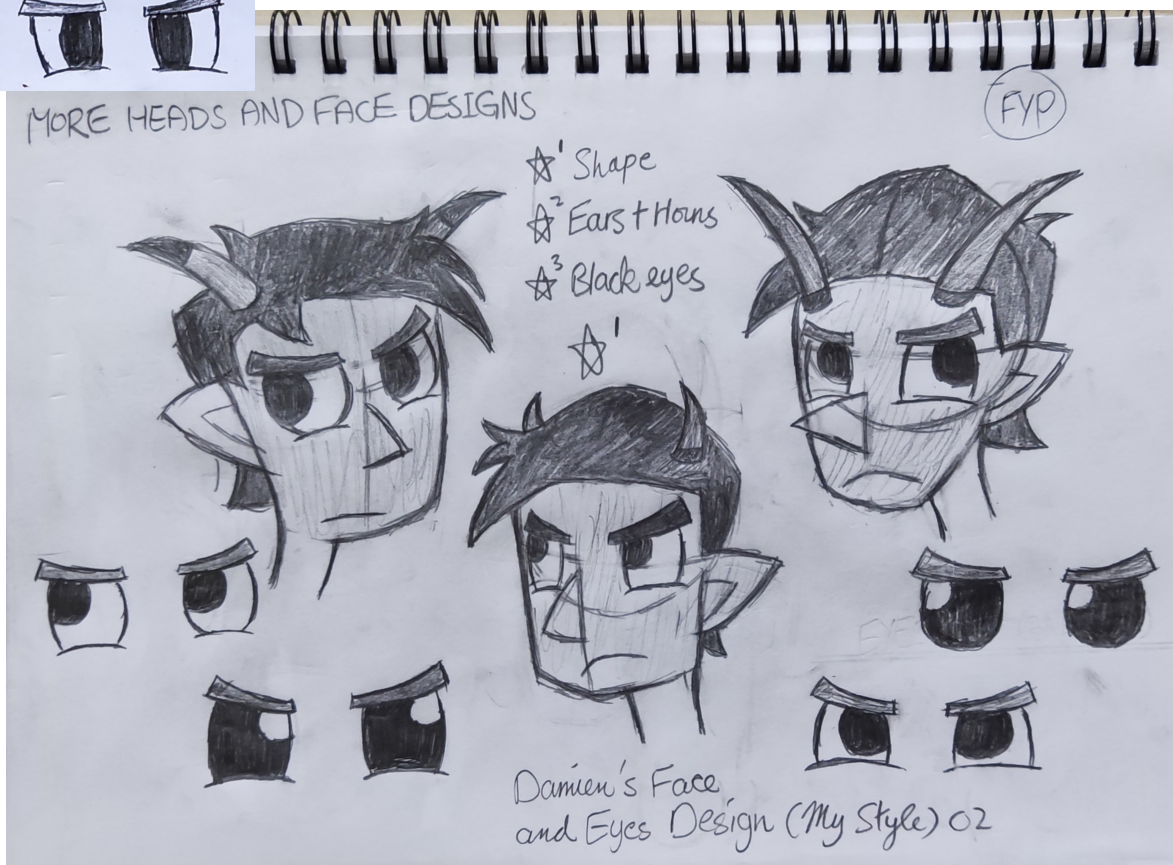

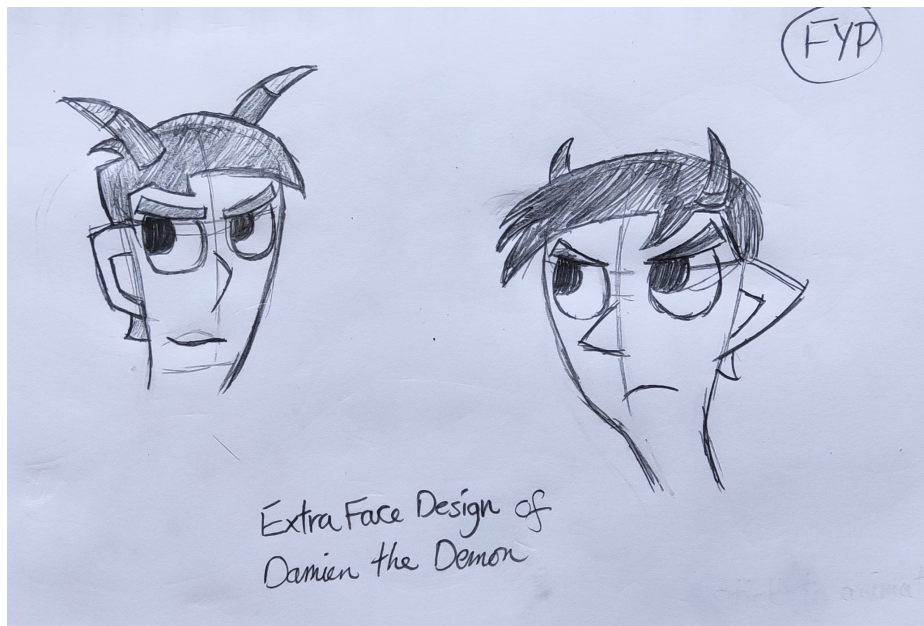

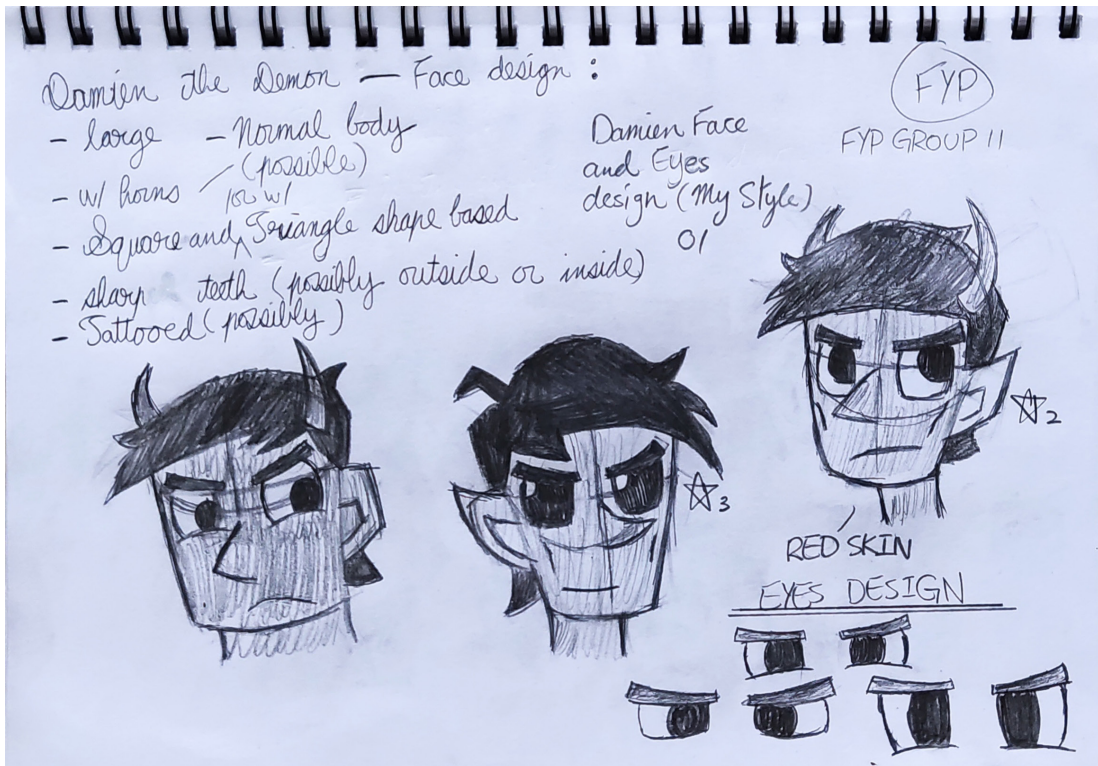

For cloaked character, the design is based off the design of Demongo, which is pointed angle, simple shapes, etc. Of course, some modifications are added.
